In appreciation for your selfless work and dedication during these extraordinary times

Nurse Week postponed—but not our admiration for the greatest nurses on the planet!

Says Reddington, "I'm a nurse in the Lunder 6 Neuro ICU currently deployed to the Lunder 7 ICU. I like this picture because I think it captures some of the contribution nurses are making during the COVID crisis."

In honor of Florence Nightingale's 200th birthday, the World Health Organization has declared 2020, "The Year of the Nurse and Midwife." Like Nightingale, MGH nurses, along with their physician, health-profession, and support-staff colleagues, are facing the COVID-19 crisis with courage and professionalism.
